

~HEIGHTS KIDS~

Hey everyone it's me Ashe!

OK so the enthusiasm of getting back in school has definitely worn off and the reality has set in. I don't know about you but my homework is way too overwhelming. Still can't really complain however- I love my new school and have made so many new friends. I never really imagined just HOW much fun high school would be!!

What about the rest of you? Are you enjoying your new classes or begging for summer again?

How about that hurricane??? If nothing else we got a couple of days off- not a bad break especially since we had a short week the following week as well!!

Thanks to those of you that submitted your birthday party pictures- No doubt the Heights can party in style!!

Well that's all for this month if you have any questions, photo's, or anything else send them to me at: Heightskidstoday@yahoo.com

Remember- for all you high school students, if you are looking for volunteer time write to us. Friends of the Heights is a non profit organization. The paper is part of that.

Supplying articles will allow you to earn volunteer hours!
